

Why do Chairman Powell and the FCC want to prevent the public from being afforded some choices in their media offerings? We are intelligent enough to desire rounded reporting; we do not need to be force fed. Please allow some input from us as followers of news who would welcome the opportunity to listen, read and then form an opinion. Do not allow this issue to be railroaded by those who favor monopolies.